T'was the night before battle and all through the house
Not a creature was sleeping, not even a mouse
The clans they were creeping all over the Muir
If Nairn they could get to the winning was sure
But the ground it was lumpy , the going was clumpy
The Highlanders soon they were tired, wet and grumpy
The Prince he was pacing, his heart it was racing
Duke Cumberland soon he knew he'd be facing
Come Donald, Come Fraser and Macintosh three
The Well of the Dead it is not meant for thee
The guns now are quiet, The Prince o'er the sea
The house is a hotel, open for tea
Work out the name and give it to me.

The Gaels south and west did erect against pests
